Numb. 8282.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 6. to Saturday December 10. 1743.

St. James's, December 6.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Liverpoole, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Owen Brereton, Eſq; Recorder, and by Thomas Brereton and Richard Gildart, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Liverpoole, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of Liverpoole, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Return to theſe Kingdoms, attended by his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, whoſe gallant Behaviour in the Cauſe of Liberty has manifeſted his Lineage to foreign Nations, and endeared him the more to every true Engliſhman.

Your Majeſty's timely Support of an injured Princeſs the Queen of Hungary, is a Proof of your Zeal for the Liberties of Europe. Your Perſeverance to bring the contending Powers to an Accommodation, in order to obtain a general Peace; and your Royal Vigilance to prevent the War's becoming general, we are deeply ſenſible of: And when it became abſolutely neceſſary to take the Field, the happy Succeſs attending it we cannot but attribute to your Majeſty's known Conduct and Reſolution.

Give us Leave, Sir, more particularly to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Victory at Dettingen, a Victory not to be forgotten; where your Majeſty with great Wiſdom commanded, and perſonally animated ally'd Armies in the common Cauſe; thereby entirely clearing Germany of an inveterate Enemy, and laying a Foundation for eſtabliſhing the Balance of Power.

Permit us alſo to teſtify our Joy to your Majeſty, on the Birth of another Son to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales: And the Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa to the Prince Royal of Denmark.

It is with the warmeſt Duty and Gratitude, we acknowledge your Majeſty's unwearied Labours for the Trade, the Commerce, the Good of your People. Nothing ſhall be wanting on our Part to ſupport your Majeſty's Meaſures. What we can contribute ſhall be given with Chearfulneſs; and we will by all our Actions continue to ſhew how much we have at Heart the Proſperity of your Majeſty, and the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe to the lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our common Seal of the ſaid Borough of Liverpoole, the 2d Day of December, 1743.

St. James's, December 8.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, in Common Council aſſembled, was preſented to the King by David Polhill, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; who was introduced by the Right Honourable Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, after the Hazards and Fatigues of a Campaign; the Succeſs of which, under Providence, was owing to your Majeſty's Conduct and perſonal Bravery, and has filled the Hearts of your Subjects with the higheſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude, in expoſing your Royal Perſon, for the Good of the common Cauſe, to ſo many great and imminent Dangers.

And we intreat your Majeſty's Permiſſion to expreſs our great Joy at the Increaſe of your Royal Progeny, on the Delivery of her Royal Highneſs

(Price Four-pence.)

Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales of a Prince; which gives us a farther Proſpect of Happineſs, in having our Religion and Liberties continued down to us in your Royal Family to the lateſt Poſterity.

Give us Leave, great Sir, likewiſe to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; an Event which cannot fail of ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt in Europe.

With Hearts full of Gratitude, we ſhall ever pray, that all your Subjects may make ſuitable Returns for the many great and valuable Bleſſings they enjoy under your auſpicious Reign, in Duty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, to the Support of which we ſhall always contribute to the utmoſt of our Power.

Given under our Common Seal at Rocheſter, the Fifth Day of December, 1743.

St. James's, December 8.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council aſſembled, was preſented to the King by the Hon. Edward Walpole, Eſq; and the Hon. Colonel Townſhend, their Repreſentatives in Parliament; who were introduced by the Right Hon. Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council aſſembled.

Dread Sir,

WE beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our ſincere and hearty Congratulations upon your ſafe Return to this Kingdom: And to expreſs our Joy and Satisfaction on the Succeſs of the Arms of your Majeſty and the allied Forces, animated by your perſonal Bravery in the Support of the Liberties of Europe.

Permit us moſt gracious Sovereign, alſo to congratulate your Majeſty on the Encreaſe of your illuſtrious Family, by the Birth of another Son to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; and on the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa to the Prince Royal of Denmark.

We beſeech Almighty God to bleſs and preſerve your Majeſty with long Life, Health, Honour, and all wordly Happineſs; and to grant, that by a timely Improvement of the preſent Advantages, there may be procured a laſting Foundation of Security to your Britiſh Dominions, and a firm Support for the Liberty of Europe. We heartily pray, that all Diviſions amongſt your Majeſty's Subjects might ceaſe, and no Contention remain, but who ſhould moſt Promote and Eſtabliſh the publick Welfare.

Given under our common Seal at Great Yarmouth aforeſaid, this Sixth Day of December, 1743.

St. James's, December 10.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council aſſembled, was preſented to the King by Sir John Tyrwhit, Bart. and Charles Monſon, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; who were introduced by the Right Honourable Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave, amidſt the univerſal Acclamations of your People, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to this your Kingdom, after the imminent Dangers to which your Majeſty has expoſed your ſacred Perſon for the Good of the Common Cauſe, and in Defence of the Liberties of Europe.

Permit us more particularly to expreſs our Congratulations on the Succeſs which has attended your Majeſty's Arms, animated by your Royal Preſence and Intrepidity, and conducted by your Majeſty's Wiſdom; whereby the ambitious Views of the Enemies of the Queen of Hungary have been fruſtrated, and their Forces obliged to quit the Empire.

We likewiſe moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of your Royal Daughter the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince of Denmark, whereby your Majeſty has given a convincing Proof how much you have at Heart the Welfare of theſe Kingdoms, and of the Proteſtant Intereſt in Europe.

Permit us to expreſs our Joy on the Birth of the young Prince, which we look on as a further Security, that Princes deſcended from your Royal Houſe, may to lateſt Poſterity fill the Throne of this Kingdom.

We ardently pray that your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long and proſperous; and that the Moderation, Wiſdom, and Equity of your Majeſty's Government, may excite the moſt dutiful Return from all your Subjects.

Given under our common Seal, at the Guild-hall of the ſaid City of Lincoln, this Seventh Day of December, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

Copenhagen, Dec. 7, N. S. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Denmark is now in the Neighbourhood of this City (God be praiſed) in perfect Health. The Prince, who left Sleſwick a Day or two before the Princeſs, and arrived here the 3d Inſtant, returned again on the 5th to meet her Royal Highneſs at Rotſchild; from thence they came Yeſterday, both in the ſame Coach, and alighted between Four and Five in the Afternoon at the Palace of Friderickſberg, where the Princeſs is to reſt herſelf till Wedneſday

Wednesday the 11th Instant, which is the Day appointed for her Publick Entry into Copenhagen. The Princes, Ministers of State, Privy Counsellors, General Officers, and all other Persons of Quality and Distinction here, of both Sexes, were assembled at Two of the Clock (in Consequence of Notice given to that Purpose) and waited for the Arrival of the Princess at the Entrance of the Palace. From the Door of the Coach they marched before her into the Anti-Chamber, the Prince handing her all the Way into her Apartment: Where, after a few Minutes Repose, the Grand Marshal and Grand Master from the King and Queen, as also the Masters of the Courts of the two Danish Princesses, were introduced to make the Compliments of their respective Principals. The Ladies were next admitted; then the Princes, Ministers, &c. who, however numerous, were all received by her Royal Highness (notwithstanding the Fatigue of her long Journey) with such a chearful Countenance, with such gracious Affability, and with such proper Marks of Distinction, as filled every one with a most agreeable Surprize, as well as with the highest Satisfaction.

Copenhagen, Dec. 10. Her Royal Highness, who still continues at the Palace of Fridericksberg in perfect Health, has received the Visits of their Majesties and of the Danish Princesses; and this Morning gave a private Audience to the Swedish Ambassador, and afterwards a publick one to all the Foreign Ministers of the second Order, and to a very numerous Court. The Prince lodges in Town, but commonly passes the whole Day in the Company of her Royal Highness. To-morrow is the Day appointed for her publick Entry into this City, and for the final Celebration of the Marriage.

Hambourg, Dec. 10, N. S. General Wurmb, who was formerly employed in the King of Great Britain's Service, as Elector of Hanover, and some Years since retired from the said Service, was this Morning chosen Commandant of Hambourg.

Liege, Dec. 13, N. S. Yesterday Duke Theodore of Bavaria, Bishop of Ratisbonne and Frisinghen, Brother to the Emperor, arrived here from Bonne, to begin his Residence as Canon of the Cathedral of St. Lambert, with a View, as it is said, of offering himself as a Candidate at the ensuing Election of a Bishop and Prince of Liege.

Whitehall, December 10.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Hon.
